Learning Through Literature

Dog Loves Books by Louise Yates

Dog is waiting for customers to arrive at his bookstore. What should he do? Immerse himself in a new book, of course to faraway places. Dog loves books, but what he likes even better is sharing them with others. That's what Ms. Lynne and Ms. Eileen will do, too. Off we go!

One Hand, Two Hands by Max Lucado. Illustrations by Gaby Hanson

God has blessed us with hands and there's so much we can do with them. We can care for ourselves and our belongings. We can care for others. And when put together, our hands are ready to pray.

The Apple Pie Tree by Zoe Hall. Illustrated by Shari Halpern

From first buds to delicious fruit, two children follow the cycle of an apple tree as it is nurtured throughout the seasons. What connections can we make to this story? Hmmm? Mmmm!

"FAMILIES LIVING GREEN" ..

How's The Family Water Bill??

You can lower your water bill as well as conserve water by having your family turn off the water when they brush their teeth. Think about how that faucet runs when all those beautiful smiles in your family are being polished and scrubbed. Yup!we're talking about hundreds of gallons a month that can be saved.

So, just wet the toothbrush, turn off the faucet and brush. Then turn the water back on when you're ready to rinse the brush and your smile:)

Rosie's Walk by Pat Hutchins

Rosie the hen leaves her chicken coop to take a walk. What other character is not mentioned in the text? How do the illustrations tell his story? What will Rosie discover when we take her for a walk at The Children's Center?

*Have your child's car seat on the passenger's side of the car, back seat.

* Don't unbuckle your child. Let us do it. Your child should be buckled in until they are taken out of the car.

The Children's Center offers

- Parents' Day Out (for 2s and 3s) as well as
- Preschool Programs (for 3s, 4s and 5s) and
- Learning Through Literature (for the kindergartner or preschool child with a year of preschool experience).

In all our programs, early learning and faith development join hands, and young families are walked with on their parenting journeys. We're happy you're a part of our family.

The Children's Center admits children of any race, color creed, and national or ethnic origin. God's world is beautiful because of its many different colors, and we welcome the same diversity in our children and their families.

Wishing you a great year at The Children's Center!
